

Permanent Seminar IPP (CSIC) AUTUMN 2023

The seminar will take place at IPP, CSIC
All seminars are held at 12 in Sala Herbert Simon (3D) except where indicated.

September 20

Tom Lane, School of Economics (University of Nottingham Ningbo China)
The strategic use of social identity

September 27

Antonia María Ruiz Jiménez, UPO (Departamento de Sociología)
Theorising gender voting gaps. Do 'feminism losers' vote for right-wing populist parties?

October 4

Vicente Valentim, Nuffield College (University of Oxford)
Why norms matter: The normalisation of the radical right

October 11

Leire Salazar, Lead Scientist of the DIGCLASS Centre for Advanced Studies (JRC European Commission)
Universal Inheritance in four EU countries: Distributional and Budgetary Impact

October 18

Krzysztof Krakowski, Fondazione Collegio Carlo Alberto
Elite Repression and popular resistance: Evidence from post-WW2 Poland

November 8

Michele Pezzoni (Université Côte d'Azur)
Tbd

November 22

Marc Guinjoan, UOC
Climate conditions, public policies and attitudes towards mitigation policies. A survey experiment

November 29

Mafalda Pratas (Harvard University)
Rationally foregoing accountability: how voters decide in a multidimensional and polarized world

December 13

Aina Gallego, UB y IBEI
Public Support for Digital Economy Initiatives

Centro de Ciencias Humanas y Sociales del CSIC
C/ Albasanz, 26-28. 28037-Madrid

