Workshop Malmö-Madrid

Issues in International Migration and Integration

Thursday , 24 April

Centro de Humanidades y Ciencias Sociales, Consejo Superior de Investigaciones Científicas (Albasanz, 20 – Madrid)

13:30-14:30 Lunch at the CSIC Cafeteria

14:30-16:00 First session

Finnur Magnússon, "Ageing and Migration – Myths, Contradictions and Paradoxes"

Amparo González Ferrer, "Acculturation, intergenerational relationships and the formation of partners' and family preferences among adolescents in Spain"

Ingrid J. Ramsøj, "Aspects of Affect and Temporality: Transnational Relationships of Bolivian Migrant Lives"

16:00-16:30 Coffee break

16:30-18:00 Second session

Héctor Cebolla-Boado, "Determinants of mental health among the children of migrant and native families in Madrid"

Anders Hellström, "Friend or Foe? The Role and Position of the Sweden Democrats, The Danish People's Party and the Progress Party in Mainstream Press Editorials"

Lisa Kraus, "Family Formation Dynamics and Migration: Examining Disruption and Interrelation of Events of Senegalese Migrants in Europe."

19:00 Walk through old Madrid, followed by dinner at Orixe (Cava Baja, xx)

Friday, 25 April

Fundación Ortega y Gasset-Marañón (Fortuny, 53 – 28010 Madrid)

9:30-11:00 Third session

Malin McGlinn, "Promoting Northern modernity and branding European identity: exploring ESF-financed labour market projects in Malmö, Sweden"

Claudia Finotelli and Maria Caterina La Barbera, "What indexes do not show: the effect of special naturalization rules on the Spanish citizenship regime"

Ioana Bunescu, "The collective identity formation of Roma in Europe"

11:00-11:30 Coffee break

12:00-13:30 Fourth session

Mikolaj Stanek, "Estimating outmigration of the foreign born population from crisis-hit Spain"

Henrik Emilsson, "A national turn of local integration policy: multi-level governance dynamics in Copenhagen and Malmö"

Elisa Brey, "Migrants' residential situations in the urban periphery of Madrid under the impact of the crisis"

13:30 Lunch